

Practical Information ★★★

Stories ★★★

The stories are all original. The themes can vary according to the event, time of year, age and group. The storyteller responds to the requests of listeners and involves them in the stories at critical moments.

Duration ★★★

Average time audience spend in the caravan is 40 minutes unless the demand is very high. We suggest story sessions no shorter than 20 minutes. Melissa usually tells stories for up to 4 hours with a break in the middle of about 30 minutes.

Disabilities ★★★

Unfortunately the caravan is not wheelchair accessible, however we make every effort to include the physically challenged and children with disabilities.

Events (Please Note!) ★★★

The pricing for the caravan is very reasonable so that the caravan and storytelling can remain free of charge to the public. At festivals, markets, and other sizeable events an assistant should be present, provided by the event. The assistant helps to handle queues and make sure turnover is smooth. At smaller events an assistant is not necessary.

Festivals: Weatherproof, high-quality entertainment and venue in one.

Schools: Educational and interactive. Storytelling builds self-esteem, creativity and incites reading.

Community group and club events: Children are

Tell me a fact and I'll learn. Tell me a truth and I'll believe. But tell me a story and it will live in my heart forever.

- Indian Proverb

People are hungry for stories. It's part of our very being. Storytelling is a form of history, of immortality too. It goes from one generation to another.

- Studs Terkel

Stories are the creative conversion of life itself into a more powerful, clearer, more meaningful experience. They are the currency of human contact.
